IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE First Circuit, Territory of Hawaii.

Amelia Aurdell vs. James Aurdell. Term Summons.

The Territory of Hawaii:

To the High Sheriff of the Territory of Hawaii, or his Deputy, the Sheriff of the Island of Oahu, or his Deputy:

You are commanded to summon James Aurdell, Defendant, in case he shall file written answer within twenty days after service hereof, to be and appear before the said Circuit Court at the February Term thereof, to be holden at Honolulu, Island of Oahu, on Monday, the 3d day of February next, at 10 o'clock a. m., to show cause why the claim of Amelia Aurdell, Plaintiff, should not be awarded to her, pursuant to the tenor of her annexed Petition.

And you are commanded to have you then and there this Writ with full return of your proceedings thereon.

WITNESS Hon. A. S. Humphreys, First Judge of the Circuit Court of the First Circuit, at Honolulu, Oahu, this 14th day of January, 1902.

A. G. KAULUKOU, Clerk.

Territory of Hawaii, Island of Oahu, ss. I hereby certify that the foregoing is a full, true and correct copy of the original summons in said cause, and that the said Court ordered publication of the same and continuance of said cause until the next February, A. D. 1903, Term of this Court.

M. T. SIMONTON, Clerk of the Circuit Court of the First Circuit, Territory of Hawaii.

2289—Oct. 31; Nov. 7, 14, 21, 28; Dec. 5.

Slowun (to office boy)—You should have been back an hour ago. What detained you?

Office Boy—That $50 you gave me to take to your tailor.

Slowun—Yes, yes, what about it?

Office Boy—Well, when I told him who sent it he fainted, and I had to go out and hunt up a doctor.—Chicago News.

A VERY SAD SCENE

AT THE CATHEDRAL

The funeral services over the remains of the late Mrs. E. B. Friel, Mrs. Mamie Friel Jackson and Miss Etta Friel were held in St. Andrew's Cathedral yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. A large casket held the remains of both Mrs. Friel and her daughter Etta and in another were the remains of Mrs. Jackson. The former rested upon the casket between the choir stalls while the latter was in the aisle just at the foot of the casket. Beautiful floral tributes covered both. The services were conducted by the Rev. Canon Mackintosh. Wray Taylor presided at the organ and the Cathedral choir sang two hymns.

The stricken husband and father entered the church, attended by J. B. Watson. The bereaved man held up well under his awful grief. Among those who occupied pews near the casket were Col. W. H. Cornwell, only brother of the late Mrs. Friel, Mrs. Widdifield and Mrs. Vida, sisters of the deceased, and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Baird, Miss Kate Cornwell, the Misses Vida, Henry Vida, Dan Vida and Wm. Vida, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cornwell Jr., Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Macfarlane, and Henry Macfarlane.

The services over the casket containing the remains of Mrs. Jackson was lifted from its resting place and taken to the hearse. The casket containing the remains of Mrs. Friel and her daughter were then carried to a second hearse and the and procession proceeded to Nuuanu cemetery where the remains were placed in the vault of Mark P. Robinson where they will remain until permanently interred in Nuuanu cemetery.

The pall-bearers were as follows: Col. George W. Macfarlane, Fred Wundenberg, L. A. C. Parrish, Hugh McIntyre, Gerrit P. Wilder, Wallace R. Farrington, L. del. Ward and United States Marshal Eugene R. Hendry.

now and then furtively glancing upward. He showed no feeling until the actual words of his doom were uttered, when his brows slightly contracted and he looked up a moment with an expression that might have been either pain or surprise.

Mr. Thompson noted an exception to the judgment and sentence of the court, which was allowed as the court motioned for the removal of the prisoner.

At a touch on the shoulder from Marshal Hendry, the prisoner, wheeled about smartly and walked out in charge of Officer Kamaau. As he departed his head wagged with a rocking motion, which might be either habitual or the effect of nervous shock.

The recorded judgment has this conclusion: "And the Clerk of this Court is hereby required to furnish the Marshal of this District with a duly certified copy of this judgment, sentence and order, which shall be returned by said Marshal with a full and true account of the execution of the same." Marshal Hendry, when spoken to after the sentence, said he was not aware that the Federal law forbade public executions. Still, unless otherwise ordered, the execution would be conducted in the manner of the Hawaiian law. Admission would only be gained by invitations issued to select witnesses. The execution would be performed with the appliances of the Territorial prison.

OIL ON STREETS.

Berkeley, Oct. 19.—Under the orders of the Town Trustees of Berkeley the experiment of placing oil on the streets is now being made with a view to making its use permanent should the present demonstration warrant. Such action, according to the computations of the town engineer, would mean a saving of $5000 a year to the street department.

Experiments are being conducted upon two different kinds of streets. The macadamized street is treated to a coating of oil and closed pending the penetration of the fluid. Upon a graded but not yet macadamized road the oil is sprinkled upon the dust and the street opened again immediately for driving.

So far the tests have been satisfactory in every respect. A report will be made upon them at the next meeting of the board and it is probable that a system of oil sprinkling will be inaugurated as a result.

Noah, finding his wife weeping on the quarter deck, inquired what was the matter.

"I'm afraid people will say our fashions came out of the ark," she sobbed. "Never mind," he returned, "we can have the apes up to dine with us tonight."

Reassured by being thoroughly up to date, she dried her tears and went down to swipe some plumes off the ostrich.—New York Sun.

Among recent arrivals is a lot of some 500 Dozen Handkerchiefs. This week they are shown for the first time. You might call it a "Pre-Holiday" Sale, for the prices are intended to tempt you to lay away a dozen or two for Christmas. They come in four distinct lines. The prices are:

There are plain hemstitched, some heavy and durable, suitable for school use; some sheer and fine, including the small, dainty, gauzy ones with narrow hems, now so popular. There is a great variety in lace—lace edge, lace insertions, lace centers and lace corners. Among the embroidered, which is the biggest lot of all, you will find some new patterns as well as surprising values. We shall also show a line of fine Swiss and French Handkerchiefs at 50c, 75c and $1.
